Dear Dr. Accarino:

We all look forward with great excitement and anticipation to iCON2013, February 24-28, 2013 at the Westin Kierland Resort in Scottsdale, Arizona, proudly presented by the Arizona Heart Foundation and the International Society of Endovascular Specialists (ISES). The objective of this meeting is to bring forth data and statistics resulting in a coherent, relevant and scientifically-based information package attendees will be able to apply to their everyday practices.

We will appreciate your participation as a member of our faculty. The Scientific Program Committee will be pleased to include your presentations:

"Is Delayed Treatment in Young Patients with Small AAA and Aortic Anatomy Suitable for EVAR Still Ethical Today with the Latest Available Endoprostheses?"

Monday, February 25, 2013

Session I: Abdominal Aortic Aneurysms: EVAR—Present Data and Future Projections

8:00 – 9:30 AM

and

"Only Centers Performing Both CEA and CAS can Tailor the Proper Technique to Each Patient"

Tuesday, February 26, 2013

Session VII: Vascular Surgery Spars with Cardiology: Facts on Carotid Stenting. Will Medical Therapy or Personalized Health Care Make These Irrelevant?

10:30 AM – 12:15 PM

The agenda will allow for 7-minute presentations. We ask your cooperation in adhering to this time limitation.

Arizona Heart Foundation prohibits the inclusion of:

- Patient name or identifier
- Trademarks, register marks, company logos, or company tag lines

Additionally:

- Company names may appear only once in the body of the presentation

Content review is required for all presentations, as well as a completed disclosure form from every presenter. This may be accomplished online at: www.iconmeeting.org/Submissions/Presenter-Planner. If you prefer, you may complete the attached Demographic and Disclosure form and return it with your abstract to my attention via email or fax. Please submit this required information and your abstract prior to January 11, 2013.

We are pleased to offer you

- Complimentary registration
- Limited reimbursement of airfare and accommodation expense. You will receive specific instructions, conditions and restrictions regarding airfare and accommodation expenses from Erika Scott.

We thank you and look forward to your contribution to iCON2013!

On behalf of Program Chairmen Edward B. Diethrich, MD and Zvonimir Krajcer, MD,
